

The Bulletin's Circulation In Norwich is Double That of Any Other Paper, and Its Total Circulation is the Largest in Connecticut in Proportion to the City's Population

FILIBUSTERS DELAY ADJOURNMENT

Tactics of Senators La Follette and Chamberlain Hold Congress In Session

MANY MEMBERS LEAVE CAPITAL IN DISGUST

Doubtful if Either House Will Be Able to Muster a Quorum Today—La Follette Wants a Record Vote on Penrose Resolution and Chamberlain Demands Payment of $600,000 of Old State Claims—A Dubious Outlook.

Washington, Aug. 25.—A few score weary members of congress and an impatient president of the United States today confronted an unprecedented governmental situation, following last night's prolonged and fruitless struggle to adjourn the session of congress. The outlook for tomorrow's sessions of house and senate promised an even more chaotic legislative condition than existed in the fight that began Saturday morning and continued until nearly church time today.

Neither House May Have Quorum.

Disgusted with the adjournment failure, many members of the senate took early trains today for their homes. Senator Penrose predicted that there would be much less than a quorum in the senate when it meets at noon tomorrow, and the house members were satisfied that that body would be nearly forty members short of the number necessary to transact business.

Filibuster by La Follette.

The double filibuster which compelled the abandonment of the plan to end the session of congress is expected to be renewed when the houses reconvene. Senator La Follette made known to friends today that he would insist upon a record vote on the adoption of the Penrose resolution for an investigation of campaign contributions of the Standard Oil company in 1904, and of the correspondence between John D. Archbold, George W. Perkins and members of congress.

Chamberlain Also Filibusters.

Senator Chamberlain, who led the other senate filibuster, the object of which was to force the house to agree to the payment of $600,000 of old state claims, will have the support of many senators if he renounces his intention to hold congress until these claims are paid. The house leaders are determined to fight the claims "until December" if necessary.

A Rather Dubious Outlook.

Either of the senate filibusters holds trouble for any plan of adjournment. If Senator La Follette should insist on a record vote, it would become necessary to secure a quorum. In such an eventuality, under no circumstances would the house concede the payment of any of these.

A $600,000 Bone of Contention.

The general deficiency bill is agreed to on all points except the $600,000 of claims demands by Virginia, Maryland, Oregon and Texas, and the extra month's pay for employees of the house and senate. Chairman Fitzgerald of the house conference renewed today his declaration that under no circumstances would the house concede the payment of any of these.

Chairman Fitzgerald Stubborn.

"If the senate insists on these items in the bill it will force the measure to go over until the December session," he said. "The house has announced its attitude firmly, and sooner than see it yield on the items it will raise the point of no quorum. Members know that it would be almost impossible to secure a quorum now, except by the physical arrest of absent members."

Senate leaders were hopeful that the senate might be induced to yield on these claims.

Nature of the State Claims.

The state claims which have aroused the resentment of the house were all added to the general deficiency bill in the senate in the case of the Maryland claim of $72,000 and the Virginia claim of $120,000. House conferees insist that the amounts now demanded by those states as "loans" from the federal government in 1790 and 1791, actually were given to the government, as an inducement for the location of the national capital in the present District of Columbia.

The Oregon claim of $193,542.02 is for the expense of raising volunteers for the Indian wars from 1802 to 1867.

La Follette Forces a Surrender.

A bare quorum of senators was in Washington up to the adjournment failure this morning, and the senate failed to pass the Penrose resolution, which was proposed before that body during the night.

Senator La Follette, by insisting upon a roll call on the motion designed to displace the Penrose investigation resolution, threatened to block adjournment indefinitely. The leaders were finally forced to surrender and allow consideration of the resolution.

Filibuster in Interest of State Claims.

Senator Penrose immediately proceeded to perfect the resolution with amendments. Relief seemed to be in sight when the conferees on the general deficiency bill appeared with their report. Senator La Follette then rose to the floor, expounding the merits of the measure with but little delay.

Within fifteen minutes all hopes of immediate adjournment were dissipated when Senator Chamberlain, of Oregon, who was speaking for the senate, began his filibuster against the general deficiency bill in behalf of the state claims.

Senators Sleep in Their Chairs.

Scores of members of the house, who drifted along for hours without any thing to do, visited the senate chamber, and sat about arguing with the senators conducting the filibuster and listening wearily to the extended debate.

Half a dozen senators slept in their chairs during the latter part of the session. About 3 o'clock the senate restaurant ran out of food and the senate went hungry.

Many Women Remain All Night.

Some in the house early this morning were pictured. About twenty of the old guard, most of them democrats, remained. Up in the rostrum sat Speaker Clark, worn out, but enjoying the capers of some of the congressmen, who were telling stories and imitations of their colleagues were not put into the official record.

A hundred spectators, mostly women, remained in the galleries all night.

DR. BLACK TO ATTEND CONGRESS ON HYGIENE

Three Connecticut Cities to Send Delegates to Washington.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Washington, Aug. 25.—The state of Connecticut is to have a prominent part in the proceedings of the fifteenth international congress on hygiene and demography, which meets in Washington under the auspices of the United States government, September 25-28. Three Connecticut cities have already named their delegates, and others are expected to be named prior to the opening of the congress.

Waterbury has named Dr. Thomas J. Minnola and Mayor Francis T. Brown as official delegates to the congress. New Haven delegates are Dr. Frank W. Wright, Dr. William H. Carmalt, and New London, Dr. J. T. Plummer.

In all, up to the present time, 145 American cities have named official delegates to the congress. Many others have accepted the invitation to send them, and still others are expected to accept the invitation and name delegates before the convention opens.

The congress is now assured of being the largest and most important gathering of scientists, educators, and others interested in all questions of public health which has ever been held in this or any other country.

JOHNSON FORESEES DEFEAT.

Roosevelt's Running Mate Holds on to the Governorship.

San Francisco, Aug. 25.—Governor Hiram Johnson, candidate for vice president on the progressive ticket, bade farewell to his political associates yesterday, after a triumphant tour of 35 days through the east, while Colonel Roosevelt is speaking in the west.

"I'm not going to resign," he said, "and after the November election it is possible I shall return to the office I now occupy. But that is neither here nor there."

The language suggested that the possibility of defeat in the governor's mind, and he did not dodge the suggestion.

"Good will overcome the defeat," he continued, "if defeat is met. We are going to plead for the brotherhood of man. Government has another duty, another power, another function than commercializing itself. Whatever the outcome, they can say to us after the battle, as Kipling's Tommy Atkins said to Fuzzy Wuzzy, the Soudanese soldier: 'You're a pore beightened nation, but a true class-fightin' man!'"

"Congress Will Adjourn by Saturday Night," declared Speaker Clark yesterday.

Cabled Paragraphs

Morocco Trouble Grave.

Paris, Aug. 25.—The situation in Morocco is each day becoming more serious.

More Friendly Relations.

San Domingo, Aug. 25.—The relations between the Dominican republic and Haiti have been placed on a much more friendly footing by the visit of a Dominican government commissioner to Haiti.

For Defense Against Norway.

Christiania, Aug. 25.—Reports have reached here from St. Petersburg that Russia intends to establish military stations along the Norwegian frontier, such as those which the German, Austrian and Rumanian frontiers.

Suffragettes Forcibly Fed.

Dublin, Aug. 25.—The forcible feeding continues of the suffragette prisoners, Mary Leigh and Gladys Evans, who started a "hunger strike" some days ago. It is said the health of Mary Leigh is causing grave anxiety to the prison authorities.

Yuan and Dr. Sun Dine.

Peking, Aug. 25.—President Yuan Shi Kai and Dr. Sun Yat Sen, former provisional president of the republic, dined together at the capital last evening and later held a conference lasting several hours during which the political situation was thoroughly discussed.

Says He Is Greatly Chagrined.

Colonel Roosevelt had received no direct word from Senator Clark when the correspondents visited him at Sagamore Hill tonight. He had heard, he said, indirectly, of the committee's inability to have him appear before it tomorrow. He was greatly chagrined, he said. Also, he added, the senate need not bother about conferring additional powers on the committee if they wanted to find out about his primary campaign, his relations with George W. Perkins and William Flinn, the Pittsburgh leader, or any other matters connected with his primary campaign. He was not at all anxious to have any more said by the press.

To Refute Archbold's Testimony.

Details of his primary campaign, however, would have been brought out by questioning him, Mr. Roosevelt feels, and inasmuch as he will not be questioned, he plans at present to confute the testimony of John D. Archbold, in which Mr. Archbold said he was assured that Colonel Roosevelt knew and appreciated a contribution of $100,000 which he alleged to have been made by Archbold in 1904 to the republican campaign.

Will Be a Long Letter.

The letter will be long. Colonel Roosevelt expects to spend nearly all day tomorrow working on it, and he is sure that it will be finished by tomorrow night. It is possible that he will touch lightly upon his primary campaign, but he will devote considerable space to his relations with Senator Penrose while he was president.

What Coriellyou Says.

Colonel Roosevelt said that last night he had seen George R. Coriellyou, who was republican national chairman in 1904.

Mr. Coriellyou told me that he never heard Mr. Archbold's name mentioned in connection with any contribution by Mr. Biles," Colonel Roosevelt said, "and that, as regards him, he is sure that it is a fabrication out of the whole cloth, as of course, it is about me."

COMMITTEE SCATTERED.

Will Be Unable to Hear Colonel Until Late in September.

Washington, Aug. 25.—Colonel Roosevelt will not have an opportunity to answer John D. Archbold's statements before the senate committee investigating campaign expenditures until late in September.

Senator Clark, chairman of the subcommittee to which Mr. Archbold told his story, has contributed $100,000 to the Roosevelt fund in 1904, telegraphed Colonel Roosevelt at 4 o'clock this morning that the committee would be unable to hear him Monday, as the colonel desired.

Late today Senator Clark received a telegram from Senator Dillingham of Vermont, chairman of the committee, naming the senate committee as the place of Senator Luke Lea of Tennessee, who has resigned. Senator Penrose, of Ohio, however, and Senator Clark, said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Roosevelt's telegram to Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Roosevelt Will Write All Day

PREPARING EXHAUSTIVE ANSWER TO ARCHBOLD.

LETTER TO COMMITTEE

Colonel Will Embody in It Matters Which He Intended to Give as Testimony Before the Senate Committee in 1904.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Having failed to obtain a hearing before the senate committee investigating campaign contributions because of the inability of the committee to get together tomorrow, Colonel Roosevelt plans to write the committee a letter, embodying some of the things to which he would have testified. He so declared tonight, in a statement in which he also took issue with the charges made by John D. Archbold to sell for Europe without telling more about the $100,000 he contributed to the republican campaign in Pennsylvania in 1904.

Says He Is Greatly Chagrined.

Colonel Roosevelt had received no direct word from Senator Clark when the correspondents visited him at Sagamore Hill tonight. He had heard, he said, indirectly, of the committee's inability to have him appear before it tomorrow. He was greatly chagrined, he said. Also, he added, the senate need not bother about conferring additional powers on the committee if they wanted to find out about his primary campaign, his relations with George W. Perkins and William Flinn, the Pittsburgh leader, or any other matters connected with his primary campaign. He was not at all anxious to have any more said by the press.

To Refute Archbold's Testimony.

Details of his primary campaign, however, would have been brought out by questioning him, Mr. Roosevelt feels, and inasmuch as he will not be questioned, he plans at present to confute the testimony of John D. Archbold, in which Mr. Archbold said he was assured that Colonel Roosevelt knew and appreciated a contribution of $100,000 which he alleged to have been made by Archbold in 1904 to the republican campaign.

Will Be a Long Letter.

The letter will be long. Colonel Roosevelt expects to spend nearly all day tomorrow working on it, and he is sure that it will be finished by tomorrow night. It is possible that he will touch lightly upon his primary campaign, but he will devote considerable space to his relations with Senator Penrose while he was president.

What Coriellyou Says.

Colonel Roosevelt said that last night he had seen George R. Coriellyou, who was republican national chairman in 1904.

Mr. Coriellyou told me that he never heard Mr. Archbold's name mentioned in connection with any contribution by Mr. Biles," Colonel Roosevelt said, "and that, as regards him, he is sure that it is a fabrication out of the whole cloth, as of course, it is about me."

COMMITTEE SCATTERED.

Will Be Unable to Hear Colonel Until Late in September.

Washington, Aug. 25.—Colonel Roosevelt will not have an opportunity to answer John D. Archbold's statements before the senate committee investigating campaign expenditures until late in September.

Senator Clark, chairman of the subcommittee to which Mr. Archbold told his story, has contributed $100,000 to the Roosevelt fund in 1904, telegraphed Colonel Roosevelt at 4 o'clock this morning that the committee would be unable to hear him Monday, as the colonel desired.

Late today Senator Clark received a telegram from Senator Dillingham of Vermont, chairman of the committee, naming the senate committee as the place of Senator Luke Lea of Tennessee, who has resigned. Senator Penrose, of Ohio, however, and Senator Clark, said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.

Senator Clark said it appeared impossible to bring the subcommittee of five together before the end of September.

Following the receipt of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram last night, Senator Clark made efforts to arrange for a committee meeting Monday. Senator Lea insisted upon resigning at the last moment, and the committee was unable to meet.